coln's Inn he became Senior Equity Scholar. This latter honour was attained in 1891. He then returned to Hongkong and began practice as a Doctor, but finding that the Law held greater opportunities he commenced to plead in the Courts as a barrister-at-law. It was at this time he presented the Colony with the Alice Memorial Hospital, in memory of his wife Alice, the eldest daughter of the late Mr. JOHN WALKDEN, of Blackheath. Throwing himself at once into the strenuous stream of public life, he was for ten years a member of the Sanitary Board, where he did excellent service; this was followed by nomination to the Legislative Council, where for the past 22 years he has served the Colony, and the Chinese community especially, well and faithfully. In the course of his career he must at one time or another have served on the committee of every public institution in the Colony, from the Tung Wah Hospital downwards; for he has always been most ungrudging in giving of his time, abilities and patience so that the public good might be served and the betterment of his fellowmen promoted. As confidential adviser on Chinese questions he has been the right hand man of successive Governors, and Sir FREDERICK LUGARD gave fitting expression to the esteem in which he held the worthy Doctor when he said in the course of his speech on Monday:—

"His long public service, as a member of Council for 22 years and of innumerable Boards and Commissions, and as confidential adviser in Chinese affairs to successive Governors, entitles him to be considered as the leading representative of the Chinese Community in this Colony. I am glad that I am authorised by the Secretary of State to announce that in recognition of his public services, as well as of his work for the University, His MAJESTY has to-day been graciously pleased to confer the honour of a Knighthood upon him. I congratulate him, and through him the Chinese community."

It was greatly owing to Sir Ho Kai's exertions that the Chinese subscriptions to the University bulk so largely—$751,179, or just over one-half of the Endowment Fund, though he modestly disclaims all credit, and ascribes it chiefly to the work of his fellow committee-men. It was in 1892 that he received the C.M.G., the honour being bestowed in recognition of his many public services, particularly for the manner in which from time to time he explained the Government's aims and intentions in regard to sanitary matters, public law, etc., to his fellow members of the Chinese community. All his life he has been a standard bearer foremost in the van of progress and many a clever and learned work has come from his pen which has been the means of throwing rays of enlightenment in many a darkened corner. But though in such close touch with the rulers of Hongkong he has never lost his independence of thought and virility of character. In the Council chamber he has often expressed dissent from the line of reasoning and procedure pursued by the Government, especially when he considered that the just rights of the Chinese community were being encroached upon, and this expression of dissent has always been followed up by his vote. For he always has had the courage of his convictions, and has "dared to be right with two or three" rather than to subserviently follow the herd. To such a man then Knighthood comes as a crowning honour, for he has thoroughly demonstrated his worth. Would that all recipients of the King's favour were such "fine flowers of knightly chivalry." We add our congratulations to the host which Sir Ho Kai has received, feeling sure that in him Hongkong has, in the person of

CHANCELLOR, a very noble knight. The new Knight was born in Hongkong fifty-three years ago, being the fourth son of the late Rev. Ho Tsun-shun, of the London Missionary Society. After a thorough grounding in the Government Central School, afterwards to develop into Queen's College, he left the Colony for England and proceeded to Palmer House School, Margate. From there he passed on to Aberdeen University, and having finished his course entered St. Thomas' Medical and Surgical College, and later entered Lincoln's Inn, to read for the law. He must have been a most voracious student, for his educational career in Great Britain was crowned by Aberdeen conferring the degree of M.D. and O.M. the Royal College of Surgeons electing him a member, while at Lin-

The Japanese export trade in watches and clocks to Hongkong is on the increase. In 1903 they totalled 20,000 pieces, and the next year a record of 50,000 was gained. Last year, though greatly hindered by the disturbances, the number reached 36,000. To-day there are in Hongkong fourteen dealers in this line, two of whom being Japanese, the rest Chinese.

The civil strike is being reflected in Hongkong, for the local office of the Hamburg-America Line has issued a notice stating that on account of the serious disturbing effects caused by the strike, the supply of tonnage may possibly be interfered with, and the Company's principals have instructed the local office to warn shippers that at any moment it may be necessary to meet the situation. At present, therefore, they are not prepared to make forward contracts. The Company also reserves to itself the liberty of despatching steamers via the Cape of Good Hope instead of via Suez Canal as usual.

In the presence of a large company of interested spectators, the annual gymnastic display and inspection in connection with the St. Andrew's Church Boys' Brigade took place on Saturday on the church lawn. Under the direction of the Rev. H. O. Spink the boys went through a splendid programme, much to the enjoyment of all present. His Excellency the Governor attended and presented medals won in the gymnastic competition by Cyril White (senior) and Scott Johnson, while Col. St. John, R.E., inspected the smart little Brigade. Bishop Hammett was amongst those present. Tea and refreshments were served, and a most enjoyable and instructive afternoon was spent.
